Purpose

The purpose of Institutional Effectiveness at Grace School of Theology (GRACE) is to support and implement the mission, vision, and goals through the purposeful, systematic collection of information. The analyzed data is used to interpret, measure, and continuously improve the effectiveness of the seminary's programs, policies, and practices. GRACE is fully committed to the need for and value of ongoing, continuous self-evaluation. This report is a collection of data, statistics, and survey results over the 2019-2020 Academic Year. It is made public for the interest of potential students, donors, and accrediting agencies.

Institutional Objectives

GRACE has eight institutional objectives that all focus on student learning. As an academic community of faith, GRACE seeks to guide students:

1. To develop a personal Christian philosophy of service and an ethical and spiritual commitment which is based upon and examined in the light of biblical revelation.
2. To grow in an understanding of the Word of God that is textually based, theologically consistent, and scripturally sound.
3. To develop effectiveness in the use and understanding of communications, both written and spoken, employing analytical and logical thinking in the process.
4. To become a contributor to God's kingdom in a manner consistent with historical, conservative, evangelical Christian principles, leading and participating responsibly in local church, community, and world affairs.
5. To accurately handle the Word of God in ministries appropriate to their calling.
6. To grow in understanding, appreciation, and application of biblical exegesis, biblical and systematic theology, biblical interpretation, hermeneutics, history, the church, and global ministry opportunities.
7. To prepare students to make life long commitments and investments of their lives in Christian ministries.
8. To prepare students for continuing study by becoming acquainted with electronic technology resources and methods of scholarly research.

Program Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) identified in course syllabi reflect the primary mission and purpose of the institution. GRACE provides and mandates the use of a syllabus template that includes a matrix/rubric designed to map SLOs and Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) with student achievement and competencies. Course learning outcomes are measureable and evaluated through student outcome competencies such as examinations, research assignments, and presentations and other assignments as determined by the course instructor.

PLO Assessment

GRACE realizes that student learning is best assessed using direct measures and has been intentional in using this process in its culture of assessment. Examples of direct measures are exams, quizzes, essays, and papers graded using a standardized rubric. Embedded direct assessments (taken from specific sections of a student's normal assignment within a particular course) are ideal since they can focus on specific learning that is desired at the program level. Direct measures are all superior to indirect measures such as students' surveys or opinions, graduation rates, retention rates, and job placement rates. These all have too many variables and inconsistencies, in addition to the difficulty to determine benchmark values in higher education.

GRACE intentionally measures student learning through the use of direct measures. Typically, research papers are collected from specific courses that have Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) that map to a specific PLO. These papers are sanitized of student personal information. An achievement target is determined, i.e., what a passing score would be. During a meeting of qualified faculty members, the papers are scored using an institutional rubric. Typically, two different faculty members score each paper at least once. The scores of all papers from all participating faculty is averaged. If the final average score is equal to or higher than the achievement target, then no action needs to be taken. If it is below, then the Deans will meet with the appropriate faculty to determine ways in which to improve the final average score. A PLO Assessment Design Template is used to document the data for each PLO measured.

Program Review Process

The Academic Department is responsible for conducting Academic Program Reviews. The program is typically benchmarked nationally against like Christian, Evangelical Seminary programs that are offering the same or similar degree program of the review. Typically, 4-6 institutions are benchmarked. The purpose of such evaluation is to ensure that the program is well structured and provides a depth required for quality and excellence in higher education. As the data collected is analyzed and trends and anomalies are uncovered, adjustments may be recommended in regards to curriculum structure and delivery.

This process is much broader than the Curricular Review process in that a Program Review looks beyond just the curriculum and evaluates enrollment and graduation trends, faculty quality and sufficiency, library services, appropriate student support services, facilities, classrooms, and support staff, as they relate to that program.

Due to COVID-19 interruptions, no specific Program Review was conducted this year, however, certain learning outcomes for the Doctorate and Master's Programs have been assessed.

Please give us your comments about the application process.
The application process was timely and easy to follow
The application process was smooth and staffs guided me with my application especially with my questions and concerns.
All the staffs I spoke to and emailed were all very gracious and helpful.
I was very pleased even though I applied late. Everyone was very helpful with all my questions.
The only issue I had was with my undergrad transcript, and this is because I was in undergrad school in the 1980s. But, I received help and found those that help to be assessible.

Excellent service! The people at Grace make things so good and are the key!

It was a very good high level presentation.

The online student FAQs and student orientation in Canvass have everything a new student needs.

It simple to understand and comprehensive.

Please give us your comments about the enrollment process.

K Russell at the Trussville Campus is amazing. She is bright, friendly and very knowledgeable about the entire process. She is extremely efficient in answering all questions and concerns. She has made this new journey an extremely pleasant process and such a discerning and spiritual lady and has been just like family to me . I don't know what I would do without her assistance. She's awesome!

K Russell took care of things so fast and it didn't matter the time of day! People like this make it easy to be flexible and be excited getting lined up for classes!

The enrollment RX where we submit all the admissions requirement was very helpful. It is easy to access and efficient for time and energy. The process was smooth.

Please give us your comments about any of the Financial Services areas.

The whole process, from application to enrolment was quick and smooth. All the staff are accommodating and helpful. I am amazed at how Grace School of Theology is using technology to fulfil its mission to be a seminary to the world.

Being military and this school working with my unique needs and situation was impeccable. All I can say is keep your selection process you have in place because each person I dealt with had a heart of service and is passionate about what they do!

Fast response time.

Comments about Academic Affairs
I love it at Grace. I'm so happy and so blessed.
I'm a part time student with a young family and a full time job. It's not that I feel I need someone to hold my hand, but I think it would help me if the academic advisor was a little more assertive in giving me a call and/or scheduling time before each semester to review my degree plan and class options coming up over the next year. Last semester I didn't log into Populi all semester and therefore didn't receive the automatic email reminding me to register for Spring classes. By the time I realized the year was coming to a close and called to see what was going on, spring registration had already closed and I had to make a special request for late registration. I feel like GSOT does a lot of things right with discupleship groups, etc., but when it comes to academic advising - it feels like I'm a little out on a limb.
There are mandatory attendance requirements that are inconvenient at times.
It was a joy to be a student at Grace last summer.
1.I chose my degree program through meeting Ken Schlenker, not through the catalog. 2. No theology classes for the MAC were provided in the spring semester; I therefore took two chaplaincy classes. I would have liked to have taken one theology and one chaplain class. No big deal, I know the offerings are limited for some curricula.
I'm New to Grace and new to not having to attend on site. However, every one I reached out to for help, responded even if it was the end of the work day. Thank you Grace!
I feel that my advisor has been very helpful and encouraging. I also feel that the registrar and financial aid people were very helpful and quick to respond.

Comments about Library Services

I love the access to the database. So helpful.

The librarian has been very helpful in helping me know how to get materials.

The library staff are available.

GSOT does not give access to all theological journals in JSTOR. To have more access there would be an important improvement. I needed to use my personal account in some research projects!

Ms. Cox sent out updated information on password changes to the database for reearch promptly.

Comments about Financial Services

Great experience

I have always received my invoice in time and this has helped me forward it to my sponsor in time.

I am thankful to Grace for helping me get my education at a low cost.

I may not be aware of where to look for my invoices, but whenever I receive an email informing me of my invoice, it's usually on the day or a day before the payment is due, with deadline of payment only a few days away. An email around a week earlier would be much appreciated.

Easy to follow the payment plans

Comments about Grace Experience

I'm so thankful God brought me here.

This is where you all excel so much. I'm proud to be a student at grace. I often don't take advantage of the opportunity to interact with staff the way I probably should, but that's something I'd like to change and work on a bit. I know you're all available, but I guess I've just thought maybe you're too busy, or, I've been too intimidated (which is totally unnecessary and something I need to change in my own thinking!)

I believe we could do more to recruit new students through attending conferences. I am always encouraging people to apply for GSOT

Faculty and Staff very caring and supportive.

Grace school of Theology is affordable.

For me to see and interact with professors and fellow classmates is a great deal. I love interacting with these men of God.

It is easy enough to connect online. I am sure it is greatly different in person, of course, but I do feel that many of my professors make me feel better and show that the care about my success and personal spiritual wellbeing.

Grace School is a blessing to me personally! As a pastor, I am encouraging our people in the congregation to enroll at Grace School.

In what ways can Grace help its current students better achieve their academic and ministry goals (programs, services, technology, building, etc.)?

Verity of classes in the fall vs. spring and summer.

Be clear to communicate to students about their expected graduation date and help students to take appropriate classes.

It would have been nice to have had an opportunity to have had a virtual "meet and greet" WELCOME for the first time online students. It would have helped to acclimate to the school, faculty and the academic programs. Also, it would have been nice to have made available to the graduating students, a "Congratulations" sign for the graduates to display in their yards. This is a major accomplishment, since the traditional graduation was delayed, this acknowledgement would have been very nice. As opposed to incurring the cost for caps and gowns, since we are under the COVID-19 Guidelines, this would have been a very nice alternative. (Especially for the graduates that could not attend the ceremony). I think this would have been a cost efficient idea for the graduates.

More communication from their academic advisors for guidance and support.

By implementing more academics and scholarships awards for scholars whom soar above and beyond achievement, after all GSOT grading system is different from the norm.

I think at this point, more classes on practical theology would very beneficial for every student at Grace. And as well, classes or more discussion on different Christian Theology's such as Eastern Christianity, Ethiopian Christianity not to replace Free Grace theology but instead to just to bring those ways of thinking to the students mind.

Accommodations for visually impaired could be extended so that all professors understand the special needs. Job opportunities should be posted for graduates.

As of now, I am very satisfied with all the services provided by Grace and am grateful.

Better communication on binding Dissertation and filling out ProQuest forms.

More professors, offer classes more frequently (required classes not always offered)

To achieve academic goals, I think we must make sure that all the textbooks are available in kindle or ebook format.

Make mission teams available for those pursuing missions.

Offer degrees in counseling.
